New Party and New Men. We have been closely and earnestly watching the new party movement. We have long thought that Kansas needed a new party, with new men for leaders, who have not been mixed up with the corruptions of Kansas politics. Whenever each a party should arise, we were prepared to are in for the new party. We see in it the great need and salvation of Kansas. Give us a new deal, and a redeemed Kansas. The new men are gradually coming to the front-or, rather, the necessary that the people of Kansas should know and love them, we here introduce a few of them to their acquaintance.

Perhaps the most preminent men, who will take a leading position, and represent the State in Congress, is a young lawyer named Clarke-Sidney, we believe, is his front name. He has lately been admitted to the bar, with brilliant prospects, and comes forth fresh and pure, nncontaminated by the filth of Kansas politics. He s modest, and never appears before the public save at the earnest solicitation of his friends and admirers. But those who have bad the good fortune to listen to him, say that he is eloquent in denunciation of corruption and monopolies. He peal in his behalf for Gaverner. The very next is said to have once been a vendor of lightningrods, but the rod has never been invented that can protect him from the lightning in the political atmosphere—the favor and confidence of an aroused and appreciative people.

As a zealous co-worker in the great cause, we must not fail to mention Clarke's law partner, one L. D. Bailey-a man more mature in years, but fresh in purity. He has also been recently admitted to the bar, his previous life having been mostly spent in labors on the farm. He stack to the farm until his last cow was sold for taxes, and his last plow for bread; but being determined not to starve, in a country where there is the law. In former years, we believe, he spent time, he is perfectly justifiable in combining a some eight years on the Supreme Bench of the State; and in that position, he had many opportunities to realize that every man should know something of the law. As one of the results of his experience, as soon as released from the duties of the office, he applied himself to the study of law, and the practice of Reform.

A man destined to be a leader in the army of Reform, is a farmer named Glick-George Glick -of Atchison County. He has never been identified with politics, but naturally hates corrup tion and monopoly. He is near enough to us, to be called our neighbor. The people of Doniphan County, or any municipal corporation in the County, cannot point their fingers at him, and say: "You wheedled, deceived, and led us into the clutches of monopolies, which are squeezing the very life-blood out of as, in the shape of

There is a young man in Montgomery County, named A. M. York, whom the people have use for. He may hide himself from public view, but the people will find him. Were he to lock himself up in a safe, like a package of greenbacks, the people would commit burglarly for the sake of possessing themselves of him. He is young, eloquent, and uncontaminated. People of Kansas, whatever you may do to others, cherish Yorkhim be with and cultivate, and he will do you

Isane E. Eaton, of Leavenworth. Old in years fight for the redemption of Kansas.

Frederick William Potter, of Coffey County, is a farmer, who has never taken part in politics, He has been called, and cannot refuse to obey. We must have a new party in Kansas, ever though we be compelled (as we probably shall) to levy on recruits from Potter's field.

We now come to a name that we speak with reverence. It is Melius-Louis Melius-called the Great Melius, and Sweet Melius, of Ottawa. We do not know whether the name is accented on the first or second syllable-whether it is Meal or li-but be it as it may, we regard him as something more than a man. If there is any thing of which we have a horror, it is witches. We have always believed that old Barbara Priotchie was a witch. Melius, or Melius, or whatever his name is, has demolished Barbara, and is entitled to our eternal gratitude. A man who can lay witches, can also lay corruption. Welcome, St. Melius!

Thomas Moonlight, a man never conected with politics, has probably lost more sleep in consequence of corruption, than any other man in the State. Where we have Potter's field, and witches, it is necessary to have a small amount of as the Alleghany snows, (in the vicinity of Pittsburgh,) and the people will force some office up-Isaac Sharp is a man who is unknown in Kansas politics-or, at least, imagines that he is unknown-but the people have an eye sharp upon him, and have a little office in store for him. Governor Sharp would not be a bad title.

There are many others we might name, but it is unnecessary. We are fully enlisted in the new party movement; and if, with such material, we cannot wipe out the corrupt Rings which have brought shame upon the name and fame of Kansus, our future is indeed dark, and the Reform patriots may well despair of attaining the great RAISING SPOOKS. - Those tomahawkers of Price. Peace is a thing that they never contemplated. If that succeeds, their occupation is gone. Had we pitched into Price, they would have abused us for a mischief-maker; but hav ing spoken in his favor, we are denounced for a cheeky hypocrite! They even conjure up the ghosts of past dissynsions and quarrels, to aid them in their battle for life. Our opposition to Judge Price in one campaign, the troubles in White Cloud, and all the other ghosts, are invoked. It is no go. The dead past has buried its dead, and spirits will not come from the vasty deep at your bidding. You may tell the peo ple of last Winter's snows, but they will not put on their overcoats in harvest. You may tell them that we made mouths at their grandmothers two years ago, but they will not dig up their grandmothers' bones to see if they rest easy in their graves. You may as well put up your little by saying that a majority bolted from the minor tomahawk, as we don't care a continental whethdoes not hold you as accountable beings, why should we worry at your babyishness ?

17 Col. C. R. Jenuison, under indictment for defrauding the Government, had his trial in the United States Circuit Court, at Leavenworth, last week, and the jury, after being out about five minutes, returned with a verdict of acquirtal. The Leavenworth Times has been trying, convicting and imprisoning Jennison in the penitentiary for this offence, for the past year or more.

The last Republican is devoted pretty near ly all to the Chief. Even the writer of its Severappe twaddle gets in two or three references to our paper. The readers of that delectable s'reet are thus indebted to us for some little relief from the monotony and insipidity with not two sides to it. But it so happens that the which they are usually regaled.

Makes a Heap of Difference.

Last week's Wathena Reporter devotes a mortal column, and over, to the little mention we made of its remarks about Ed. Russell. The greater part of this bergulean effort is devoted to splitting hairs on the question of Russell's salary-claiming that Russel is still earning his salary, if not drawing it, and that she law also provides for salary of a clerk. We are sorry that the Reporter editor's arduous labors would not permit him to carefully examine the laws passed by the last Legislature, as in that case he might have given us a few columns more of critical

Now, we simply said that Russell was drawing any salary to any alarming extent, as enter into it. We believe it has arisen, and we the Legislature made no appropriation for him, por for pay of a clerk. We did not say that Russell was not entitled to pay, or that he could not be paid at some future time for his labors this year. If that is the point, we will admit people are searching them out from among the that Russell is expecting pay, and will probably oss, and are forcing them to the front. As it is get it, together with clerk hire. We will also take it for granted that Russell told a gentleman from Wathena that he was in favor of a certain man for Governor.

Having reached this point, we take it that the Reporter's real grievance is, that while Russell is being allowed a salary by the State, he is around talking up the chances of a friend for Governor. W.HI. Smallwood is also drawing a salary from the State-and there is no dispute about his getting his money right along-and is also allowed a salary for two clerks, besides a contingent fund. Yet the same issue of the Reporter that condemned Russell, announced that Smallwood was at Wathens on a visit, and contained a strong apissue copied an extract from a paper in another part of the State, saying that Smallwood was there, and was a prominent candidate for Governor. In short, Smallwood is going around looking up his chances for the Governorship. It is all right for Smallwood to do this, while being paid by the State; but it is infamous in Russell, under the same circumstances, to go around in behalf of a friend. The difference is all in the eye of the editor of the Reporter, who is in favor of Smallwood, and opposed to Russell's friend. The way we look at it is this: a State officer is not a slave, that he must never leave his post. Smallwood is a faithful officer; and if he has little recreation with looking up his prospects for Governor. He still draws his salary, and the duties of his office are not neglected. Ed. Russell is also a faithful officer, and by hard labor, has got through the rush of his duties. If he sees proper to put in a few spare weeks in looking to the interests of a friend to whom he owes his office, there is no impropriety in it. This we call fair on both sides. But strict Wathena Reporter justice prongs all one way.

THE PUBLIC SCOLD.-The tomahawk organ colds because the Chief has presumed to speak of the troubles in the Methodist Church. We want the tomahawkers to understand that the party to which the Republican belonged were running the church to suit themselves, and the minority had no access to or hearing through the organ, they came to the Chief, and found our columns open. They were every one of them, too, men who had never patronized the Chief, but had opposed it, and had thrown all their influence in favor of the Republican. Being trampled down by the men whom they had supported, they came to a paper that was open to all, and that was never ashamed to say just what it thought. After the Tomahawkers left the Church and commenced trying to break it down, they would not even publish notices of the meetings of that Church, while volunteering notices of another for the first time, girds on the political sword, to Church. The columns of the Chief are again free to the Methodists for such church notices as they desire. But aside from and above all the forgoing, the Chief claims the right to comment upon and we have exercised that right, without fear but has probably wept barrels of salt water over all questions interesting the public; and there or favor. But if we have been remiss in that the degradation and corruption of the State. has never been anything more public than the respect, we are entitled to a credit mark on the quarrel in the Methodist Church. We shall do other hand. We have never taken a circus wothis without the advice or consent of priests, cen sors, or dish-water organs. And we have not by any means told the worst we know about some of them.

the railroads in this County have been assessed at from $15,000 to $18,000 per mile. In this con nection, we have been told (we have not the law to refer to for verification) that the railroad assessment law of last Winter classes railroads, for purposes of taxation, as real estate. There are at least 75 miles of railroad in Doniphan County, which, at an average of $15,000 per mile, would make a total assessment of $1,125,000, on which the State, County, Municipal and other taxes will amount to over $50,000. The railroads of course, will fail to pay it. The collection cannot then be enforced, as heretofore, as per sonal taxes are, but must be advertised and sold like delinquent real estate. The question is, who time. will bid on the railroads? Nobody; for the more moonlight. He comes to us pure and unspotted of them an individual bought, the worse he would be off. He could not use them, nor sell them. The result is, the Company will continue to use them, and pay no taxes.

Now, if this statement be correct, don't it look as if the late Reform Legislature put their foot into it again, and left the Railroad Companies to chuckle over their triumph!

The Sabetha Advance asks us how v would like to support D. W. Wilder for Governor, and Robert Tracy for State Treasurer. We could vote that ticket, without a scratch. But it so happens that Wilder is a candidate, of his own choice, for re-election as Anditor, and does uot aspire to the Governorship. Then, we had already spoken in favor of a Doniphan County man for an important office, and were too modest to ask all the offices for this County. Besides Bob says he wouldn't give the bond required of preachers, up at the corner, are terribly nuhap-hy over what we have said in favor of Judge ing the duties connected with the office, for the salary of the office.

Another misfortune! The Wathena Re orter has cut our acquaintance-cut it, too, at the very time when it was devoting an unusual amount of space to our benefit. We had hoped to be able to say, in language similar to the beantiful words of Jonathan to David: "Thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house forever; no, not when the Lord bath cut off the enemics of old man Stewart every one from the face of the earth." But he has done it! While we mourn our bereavement, we still have one ernmb of consolation-the Cincinnati Gazette still exchanges with us!

LF Two years ago, when a bolt occurred in the Republican County Convention, a good deal of sport was made at the expense of the bolters, ity. The tomahawkers of the Republican are in er we are able to please you or not. If the Lord | the same predicament, in the matter of the Methodist Church trouble. They claim that they had a large majority of the members on their side, and had chosen the Church efficers fairly, and yet they have bolted from the church, because a preacher was sent who was not implicated in the trouble. Bah!

> "Will the Republicans unlead?" asks the New York Sun. Of course they will unload. In the last Presidential election, they unloaded a large amount of worthless trash, barnacles, and dead weight, leaving them healthier and strongthan ever; and the prospect is, that this year they will unload more of the same sort, with a like beneficial result.

The Republican's story about the petition to the Bishop, would be all very nice, were there Elder, to whom it refers, tells the other side.

WHO LIES!-The Republican denies that one of its editors presented a petition to the Methodist Bishop, and clinches it with its usual argument of "liar." Let's see where the liar is located. A. G. Sanborn, of the Republican, took the petition to Atchison. He was not willing to trust it to the Elder, but must see the Bishop himself. He supposed his face would take him through, if he could look the Bishop square in the eye. The Elder went with him to Bishop Andrews, introduced him, and then withdrew. Sauborn produced his petition, which the Bishop placed on a pile of other petitions, without examning, and then prepared to listen to Sanborn's little speech. He said his piece, winding up with the declaration, that if Mr. Leake was not sent, they did not want anybody, as they would not support him, and he would be compelled to quit. The word "tomahawk" was not used, but that was the impression created. "Starved out" would be a more appropriate definition. After Sanborn withdrew, the Elder returned. "What kind of a man is that you brought to me!" at once inquired Bishop Andrews. "Such a spirit as he exhibited I have never before witnessed in professed Christian. It is a spirit that I can not tolerate, and they cannot now have Mr. Leake returned to them under any circumstances, however favorably disposed I may otherwise have

Now, you can disprove all these facts, simply by calling us a list; or, if somewhat stronger language is necessary, add rascal and thief to it. These epithets, coming from that locality, burt our feelings, and are powerfully convincing to the IP Robert Riddle, the defaulting Treasurer efferson County, has had his trial, and been acquitted. One who is acquainted with the cirimstances, says he thinks the acquittal was principally upon the ground that Riddle was a fool. If it is coming to this, it will be necessary hereafter, when a man is nominated for County Treasurer, for the Probate Judge to summon a jury, to decide whether the candidate is a fool or not. In some Counties, the voters resolve themselves into a jury, and render their decision at the ballot-box. They did this in Andrew County, Missouri, some four or five years ago.

The Republican is troubled about the mis chief we have kept alive in White Cloud. It is work to do, he has embraced the profession of done his work properly, and has a little spare a pity the people in White Cloud cannot appreciate its feelings in their behalf, but continue to patropize a paper that keeps up the mischief. We just now have more subscribers in White Cloud than we ever had before, even while we were there. Our list at that office numbers over two handred, and is steadily increasing. The paper that laments the mischief we have done, has about fifteen subscribers there!

Districts have not been so arranged that none of he present members can be re-elected. In making the apportionment, a good deal was done with view to certain men's chances, that looks decidedly "thin" on a map; but it is exceedingly doubtful whether things pan out according to the plans.

That organ of pure morality and undefiled religion, the Doniphan Couty Republican, again cruelly reminds us that we never go to church. We understood that the law gave a man a right to do as he pleased in the matter, an in out of the wet!

The Republican has something to say about County printing at enormous rates. We were ever so auxious to keep somebody else from doing the printing, as to put it down to such low figures that we were ashamed to let the public know what we got for it. It may be fun to fill your paper five weeks with matter that does not pay for the original type-setting, but it won't pay for many Universal Presses!

NELLIE GRANT'S HUSBAND NOT A RICH MAN-INTENDED FOR A DRUMMER.—The enterprising young Briton who has captured our President's daughter is not a man of wealth. On the condaughter is not a man of wealth. On the contrary, he is barely well-to-do. In this matter I speak by card, my information coming direct from Mrs. Grant. His father, Edward Sartoris, has a small estate in Sonthampton, and is somewhat interested in a Sheffield manufactory. Algernon originally came to this country with an idea of serving the Sheffield house as a traveling salesman. He has comparitively little education and no profession. It has been reported that he was a civil engineer, but this is untrue. If he ever studied engineering at all, it was only for a short time, and entirely too little to acquire a knowledge of the science.

short time, and entirely too little to acquire a knowledge of the science.

The death of bis elder brother made him heir to his father's estate, but as Sartoris, sr., still lives, it can do him no good for the present. All the income he has is such as his father allows him, and may be cut off at any moment. He is also sadly deficient in morals, his chief pleasure being apparently the society of a party of jovial fellows over a glass of good wine. Unless he mends, it will be a sorry alliance for Miss Nellie.

The house in England, also, which has been the subject of many glowing descriptions, is nothing but a neat little cottage on the elder Sartoris' grounds. It is by no means an elegant huilding, and can only be maintained as Sartoris, sr., permits. Nevertheless, I am told by people who know the family, that Algernon Charles Frederick's mother is a splendidid woman, and that she will make it very pleasant for Nellie. that she will make it very pleasant for Nellie.-

Chicago Post and Mail. President Grant seems to have at last yielded to the sentiment which demands a change in the treasury department, and to have chosen General B. H. Bristow, formerly solicitor general, as Mr. Richardson's successor. The selection does credit to the judgment of the President. General Bristow was a loyal Kentnekian, and a gallant nuion soldier during the way. He is an during the war. He is an able lawyer, and has played a prominent part in public affairs, always with credit, and never with public anairs, always with credit, and never the slightest reproach. His connection with the southern railroad system has made him acquainsouthern raitroad system has made non sequence ted with practical business, and the experience thus gained, together with his great force of character, amply qualifies him for the adminis-tration of the treasury portfolio.—Philadelphia Press.

The Cincinnati papers are complaining bitterly of the arrogance manifested by the clergy of that of the arrogance manifested by the clergy of that city regarding the temperance cruasde. The Enquirer, in particular, thinks they imagine themselves possessed of the power wielded by their predecessors two thousand years ago. The fuluinations of pope Gregory could not be more uncompromising and haughty, and the denneistions which he launched at recusant Casholics, are not more terrible than the doom assigned the poor Cincinnations by these modern ecclesiastics. It would be well for the Enquirer main to keep, a guard on his pen, lest he have a built of excommunication fired at him.

Five Per Cent. on Indian Lands. The Commonwealth has claimed that Governor Osborn was "the discoverer of the rights of the State in reference to five per cent, due the State of Kansas on sales of public lands within its limits, whereby he has already added nearly $50,000 to the public funds." If anybody is entitled to a patent for the "discovery of the rights of the State in this regard," it is Governor Harvey.—Lawresce Tribare.

The Tribane is either mistaken or wilfully misrepresents the statement we made. We did not say, as one would suppose from reading the above, that Governor Osborn was the discoverer of the rights of the State in regard to the five per cent. due on public lands simply. That's a part of she organic act, and its benefits have voluntarily accrued to the State since its organizatio:. But on the sale of public lands, made so by the extinguishment of before titles, like the Osage diminished reserve and the Kaw reserve for instance, Governor Osbora was first to demand the percentage and to press an acknowledgment of the justice of such claim. He made special meution of this claim in his message last winter, and asked for an appropriation to pay connsel to examine the records and obtain a schedule of such land sales. Nearly all the desirable lands of the State were, at the time of its admission, Indian lands, and up to this time the State has had no benefit from their disposal. Gov. Osborn has been assured that lands disposed of by land warrants are also subject to the assessment of the percentage. Gov. Carpenter, of Iowa, is prosecuting such a claim now, and he and Gov. Osborn have, as far as they were able, been working the matter up in conjunction. On application being made at the department of the interior in Washington for a list of such land sales, the governor was informed that the clerical force was inadedequate to perform such a task within regular dequate to perform such a task within regular hours, and he was scenningly referred to the lo-cal land offices, but was enable to obtain the list from them, probably for the same reason. THE POTATO BUG IN IOWA .- All accounts agree that the potato-bug movement this season is unusually early and formidable. Mr. Joseph Bennett informed us on Saturday that in a field of potatoes on the island, which he planted in April, there are an average of nine bugs to each potato. In a patch he has on the bluft they are not quite so bad. Mr. W. P. Frasier estimates the number of bugs on his at half a dozen to each plant. He has noticed many of them on the wing, and they invariably fly eastward. Of course, inless the bugs come to a premature and nucxpected end, they will completely destroy the potato crop this season. It is said, however, that a certain species of ant has appeared and is destroying them in great numbers. The propa-gation of the anti-potato-bug ant should be en-couraged by all means.—Muscatine Journal.

"WE And Our NEIGHBORS"

is the latest and raciest work by

Harriet Beecher Stowe

Author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin,"
"The Minister's Wooing," "My Wife and I," and other powerful stories, each the literary sen sation of its period; and this story promises a like genuine and wholesome sensation. It bears directly on social topics of interest, embracing the remance of youthful companiouships, the brightness of happy home life, the spicy complications of neighborhood associations, and such follies and profound demestic miseries as have led to the widespread Temperance movement of the day.

MES STOWE is new in the prime of that genin which wrote " Uncle Tom," ripened by years of study and observation. Her novels are immens ly popular, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" alone out-selling by handreds of thousands any edition of any original work ever published-sare the Bible. Her book two years ago, "My Wife and I," outsold every cotemporary. Such a pure and ennobling story as " We and Our Neighbors" should be read in every home. This new Serial is now running exclusively in the

Weekly Family Newspaper,

THE CHRISTIAN UNION Henry Ward Beecher, EDITOR.

In religious matters this paper is Evangelical and unsectarian; in political affairs, independent and outspoken. It contains the best articles, and both short and serial stories, from the foremost writers; it aims to maintain the highest standard in Religion, Literature, Poetry, Art, Music, Science, News, Politics, Household and Family Affairs, with Stories, Rhymes, Puzzles for the Children, etc. Nothing is spared to make it a COMPLETE Newspaper for the Family, pure, attractive, wide-awake, and up with the timesjournal interesting to every one in the household, young or old. It is such volumes, i. e., sixty-five dollars' worth of mat ter! To each is thus annually

A MARVEL OF CHEAPNESS. For less than one cent a day, it gives every reek reading matter enough to till an ordinary $1 25 book of over 300 pages; and in a year 52

PRESENTED A Complete Library.

The form of the paper, 24 pages, large 4to, pasted and trimmed, commends it to all.
